

Major Course Output (MCO) Guideline

Course: IT101 – Introduction to Human-Computer Interaction

Output: User Interface Design Documentation

General Guidelines

- Document Format
 - Font style: Arial
 - Font size: 12 pt
 - Spacing: 1.15
 - Page size: A4
- Submission Format
 - Hard Copy and Soft Copy (Word File and PDF File).
 - Filename format: IT101_MidtermMCO_GroupNo_ProjectTitle
Example: IT101_MidtermMCO_Group1_TOMATOTEC
- Deadline
 - On or Before October 2, 2025.
 - Deadline is deadline. No late submissions.

★ Note: Plagiarism is strictly prohibited. All designs, explanations, and write-ups must be original.

Grading Criteria

Criteria	Description	Percentage
Completeness of Documentation	All required parts (Cover Page, Title, Rationale, Objectives, Personas, Design) are present and properly written.	30%
Creativity and Design Quality	Originality, aesthetics, usability, and alignment of the interface design with HCI principles.	30%
Clarity of Rationale and Objectives	Well-written, clear, and relevant explanation of the project rationale and objectives.	20%
Relevance of User Personas	Personas are realistic, detailed, and appropriate to the target users.	10%
Professionalism	Formatting, grammar, spelling, organization, and adherence to guidelines.	10%
Total		100%

"Grades can be repeated. Character cannot be replaced."

- Sir Iloy

